In the world of our history, many important places were abandoned and people vanished. Places that were very important for them. These places could be historical landmarks, such as manor houses, churches, old mansions and other buildings. They were founded at the beginning of the history. In this game you can create your own manor house, draw a plan and build it. Your task is to maintain the house so it will last a lot of years. Put all the tiles, decide the colors and size. By the way, you can change the building later to suit your taste. There are many plants which you can use to obtain XP and new bonuses. There are lots of maps that you can choose from. You can make them on different sizes and add different flags. Enjoy! The invention of the paper is based on the paper. At first, people used pulp, but it was not good for writing, so they began to use different materials. In order to make paper from trees, you have to follow the following steps. Firstly, you have to cut down the trees. Secondly, you have to boil the wood. The third step is to put the paper between two moist paper between two moist paper. You may ask yourself how old paper is. We know that the oldest paper is dated back to the Neolithic times. At this moment, people had started to build the first houses,
